

MONEY MARKET.

Sales of the Stock Exchange, Dec. 14.

25 Del. & Hud.	$34	99	100	do	16
5 do.	99	75	75	do	16
5 do.	99	75	75	cash	16
25 do.	99	20	10	L. R.	50
5 do.	cash	99	50	do	50
15 do.	$30	95	95	Patterson RR.	50
50 do.	cash	10	50	do	50
10 do.	99	50	50	do	50
25 do.	150	90	75	75	75
50 do.	150	90	75	75	75
50 Phoenix Bank....	$32	20	25	do	50
50 Amer. Coop.	15	25	25	Bank & Prot. R.	50
50 Amer. Exch.	62	20	20	do	50
50 do.	62	20	20	do	50
25 Farmers' Trust....	30	15	15	Washington	50
75 do.	30	15	15	do	50
10 do.	30	10	10	do	50
10 do.	30	15	15	do	50
10 do.	60	35	20	do	50
10 do.	30	15	15	do	50
175 Harlem R.	150	125	100	Canaan Co.	50
50 do.	150	125	100	do	50
50 do.	150	125	100	do	50
50 do.	150	125	100	do	50
50 do.	150	125	100	do	50
150 do.	630	500	400	do	50

Second Board.

Tuesday, Dec. 15.

The transactions at the Brokers' Board-to-day were to considerable extent, and in general a sorer feeling was observed. Del. & Hud. improved 1 cent per cent; Bank Commerce, Stonington, New Jersey, and Harlem, 1 cent; Farmers' Trust declined 1 cent per cent.

State Securities were generally firm at yesterday's rates but in Indiana and Illinois the market was still depressed.

There has been a fair but not large amount of transactions in Foreign Exchanges for the Current month. The rate for sterling has been from $1 to $2, the former for Southern bills and the latter for prime city bills. France was at $1 20 for city bills.

Some of the Southern Exchanges continue to get worse. Philadelphia, the rate has risen to 6 1/2; Baltimore, 6 1/2; Virginia 6 1/2; North Carolina, 5 1/2; N. Orleans, 6 1/2; Mobile, 11 1/2.

The severity of the money market continues with very little abatement. The receipt of two back mails from the South has, however, brought some remittances which were much needed.

Treasury Notes, six per cent, are selling at 4 to 4 1/2.

Prime 1 percent per month.

Mr. Whiteside, the bond Commissioner of Illinois, has arrived in town. We shall be very glad to hear that he has made arrangements to pay the January interest on the bonds, but there appears to be very little confidence felt in the street that anything can be done.

Adjudged.

COURT OF Oyer AND TERMINER.

BROOKLYN, Monday, Dec. 13.

Before Judges Kent, Lott, Smith, Connelly, Martineau, and Bergen.

Trial of William H. Cook, for the murder of George Phelps, on the 29th of September, 1840.

[Concluded.]

The Jury sat being out two or three minutes returned with a verdict of Not Guilty.

By request of Counsel for prisoner, the charges for burglary against him have been set down for trial on Friday next.

POLICE OFFICE.

TUESDAY, Dec. 14.

STEALING BUTTER.—A man named Henry Brown was arrested on Monday night by Mr. E. N. Farnsworth, with a knife of butter in his possession weighing 19 pounds, and worth $15, which he had stolen from the store of James E. Koster, No. 225 Greenwich-street, and for which he was sent to prison to answer for.

A YOUNG STRANGER.—On Monday night a lady of the family of D. Verily, No. 13 Bowery, about 8 o'clock, shot a bullet in the hall of the house, but not obstructing it particularly, passed on. Between 10 and 11 o'clock the cry of an infant was heard in the hall, and on going out, a female infant, about 3 years old, was discovered in the basket, apparently dressed and wakened Hopkins being called in, took the child home to his wife, who kindly nurtured it for the night. This morning it was taken to the Almshouse and put out to nurse. Does not this show that he is innocent?

ASSISTANT CORONER'S OFFICE.

TUESDAY, Dec. 14.

STEALING BUTTER.—A man named Henry Brown was arrested on Monday night by Mr. E. N. Farnsworth, with a knife of butter in his possession weighing 19 pounds, and worth $15, which he had stolen from the store of James E. Koster, No. 225 Greenwich-street, and for which he was sent to prison to answer for.

A YOUNG STRANGER.—On Monday night a lady of the family of D. Verily, No. 13 Bowery, about 8 o'clock, shot a bullet in the hall of the house, but not obstructing it particularly, passed on. Between 10 and 11 o'clock the cry of an infant was heard in the hall, and on going out, a female infant, about 3 years old, was discovered in the basket, apparently dressed and wakened Hopkins being called in, took the child home to his wife, who kindly nurtured it for the night. This morning it was taken to the Almshouse and put out to nurse. Does not this show that he is innocent?

ASSISTANT CORONER'S OFFICE.

TUESDAY, Dec. 14.

STEALING BUTTER.—A man named Henry Brown was arrested on Monday night by Mr. E. N. Farnsworth, with a knife of butter in his possession weighing 19 pounds, and worth $15, which he had stolen from the store of James E. Koster, No. 225 Greenwich-street, and for which he was sent to prison to answer for.

A YOUNG STRANGER.—On Monday night a lady of the family of D. Verily, No. 13 Bowery, about 8 o'clock, shot a bullet in the hall of the house, but not obstructing it particularly, passed on. Between 10 and 11 o'clock the cry of an infant was heard in the hall, and on going out, a female infant, about 3 years old, was discovered in the basket, apparently dressed and wakened Hopkins being called in, took the child home to his wife, who kindly nurtured it for the night. This morning it was taken to the Almshouse and put out to nurse. Does not this show that he is innocent?

ASSISTANT CORONER'S OFFICE.

TUESDAY, Dec. 14.

STEALING BUTTER.—A man named Henry Brown was arrested on Monday night by Mr. E. N. Farnsworth, with a knife of butter in his possession weighing 19 pounds, and worth $15, which he had stolen from the store of James E. Koster, No. 225 Greenwich-street, and for which he was sent to prison to answer for.

A YOUNG STRANGER.—On Monday night a lady of the family of D. Verily, No. 13 Bowery, about 8 o'clock, shot a bullet in the hall of the house, but not obstructing it particularly, passed on. Between 10 and 11 o'clock the cry of an infant was heard in the hall, and on going out, a female infant, about 3 years old, was discovered in the basket, apparently dressed and wakened Hopkins being called in, took the child home to his wife, who kindly nurtured it for the night. This morning it was taken to the Almshouse and put out to nurse. Does not this show that he is innocent?

ASSISTANT CORONER'S OFFICE.

TUESDAY, Dec. 14.

STEALING BUTTER.—A man named Henry Brown was arrested on Monday night by Mr. E. N. Farnsworth, with a knife of butter in his possession weighing 19 pounds, and worth $15, which he had stolen from the store of James E. Koster, No. 225 Greenwich-street, and for which he was sent to prison to answer for.

A YOUNG STRANGER.—On Monday night a lady of the family of D. Verily, No. 13 Bowery, about 8 o'clock, shot a bullet in the hall of the house, but not obstructing it particularly, passed on. Between 10 and 11 o'clock the cry of an infant was heard in the hall, and on going out, a female infant, about 3 years old, was discovered in the basket, apparently dressed and wakened Hopkins being called in, took the child home to his wife, who kindly nurtured it for the night. This morning it was taken to the Almshouse and put out to nurse. Does not this show that he is innocent?

ASSISTANT CORONER'S OFFICE.

TUESDAY, Dec. 14.

STEALING BUTTER.—A man named Henry Brown was arrested on Monday night by Mr. E. N. Farnsworth, with a knife of butter in his possession weighing 19 pounds, and worth $15, which he had stolen from the store of James E. Koster, No. 225 Greenwich-street, and for which he was sent to prison to answer for.

A YOUNG STRANGER.—On Monday night a lady of the family of D. Verily, No. 13 Bowery, about 8 o'clock, shot a bullet in the hall of the house, but not obstructing it particularly, passed on. Between 10 and 11 o'clock the cry of an infant was heard in the hall, and on going out, a female infant, about 3 years old, was discovered in the basket, apparently dressed and wakened Hopkins being called in, took the child home to his wife, who kindly nurtured it for the night. This morning it was taken to the Almshouse and put out to nurse. Does not this show that he is innocent?

ASSISTANT CORONER'S OFFICE.

TUESDAY, Dec. 14.

STEALING BUTTER.—A man named Henry Brown was arrested on Monday night by Mr. E. N. Farnsworth, with a knife of butter in his possession weighing 19 pounds, and worth $15, which he had stolen from the store of James E. Koster, No. 225 Greenwich-street, and for which he was sent to prison to answer for.

A YOUNG STRANGER.—On Monday night a lady of the family of D. Verily, No. 13 Bowery, about 8 o'clock, shot a bullet in the hall of the house, but not obstructing it particularly, passed on. Between 10 and 11 o'clock the cry of an infant was heard in the hall, and on going out, a female infant, about 3 years old, was discovered in the basket, apparently dressed and wakened Hopkins being called in, took the child home to his wife, who kindly nurtured it for the night. This morning it was taken to the Almshouse and put out to nurse. Does not this show that he is innocent?

ASSISTANT CORONER'S OFFICE.

TUESDAY, Dec. 14.

STEALING BUTTER.—A man named Henry Brown was arrested on Monday night by Mr. E. N. Farnsworth, with a knife of butter in his possession weighing 19 pounds, and worth $15, which he had stolen from the store of James E. Koster, No. 225 Greenwich-street, and for which he was sent to prison to answer for.

A YOUNG STRANGER.—On Monday night a lady of the family of D. Verily, No. 13 Bowery, about 8 o'clock, shot a bullet in the hall of the house, but not obstructing it particularly, passed on. Between 10 and 11 o'clock the cry of an infant was heard in the hall, and on going out, a female infant, about 3 years old, was discovered in the basket, apparently dressed and wakened Hopkins being called in, took the child home to his wife, who kindly nurtured it for the night. This morning it was taken to the Almshouse and put out to nurse. Does not this show that he is innocent?

ASSISTANT CORONER'S OFFICE.

TUESDAY, Dec. 14.

STEALING BUTTER.—A man named Henry Brown was arrested on Monday night by Mr. E. N. Farnsworth, with a knife of butter in his possession weighing 19 pounds, and worth $15, which he had stolen from the store of James E. Koster, No. 225 Greenwich-street, and for which he was sent to prison to answer for.

A YOUNG STRANGER.—On Monday night a lady of the family of D. Verily, No. 13 Bowery, about 8 o'clock, shot a bullet in the hall of the house, but not obstructing it particularly, passed on. Between 10 and 11 o'clock the cry of an infant was heard in the hall, and on going out, a female infant, about 3 years old, was discovered in the basket, apparently dressed and wakened Hopkins being called in, took the child home to his wife, who kindly nurtured it for the night. This morning it was taken to the Almshouse and put out to nurse. Does not this show that he is innocent?

ASSISTANT CORONER'S OFFICE.

TUESDAY, Dec. 14.

STEALING BUTTER.—A man named Henry Brown was arrested on Monday night by Mr. E. N. Farnsworth, with a knife of butter in his possession weighing 19 pounds, and worth $15, which he had stolen from the store of James E. Koster, No. 225 Greenwich-street, and for which he was sent to prison to answer for.

A YOUNG STRANGER.—On Monday night a lady of the family of D. Verily, No. 13 Bowery, about 8 o'clock, shot a bullet in the hall of the house, but not obstructing it particularly, passed on. Between 10 and 11 o'clock the cry of an infant was heard in the hall, and on going out, a female infant, about 3 years old, was discovered in the basket, apparently dressed and wakened Hopkins being called in, took the child home to his wife, who kindly nurtured it for the night. This morning it was taken to the Almshouse and put out to nurse. Does not this show that he is innocent?

ASSISTANT CORONER'S OFFICE.

TUESDAY, Dec. 14.

STEALING BUTTER.—A man named Henry Brown was arrested on Monday night by Mr. E. N. Farnsworth, with a knife of butter in his possession weighing 19 pounds, and worth $15, which he had stolen from the store of James E. Koster, No. 225 Greenwich-street, and for which he was sent to prison to answer for.

A YOUNG STRANGER.—On Monday night a lady of the family of D. Verily, No. 13 Bowery, about 8 o'clock, shot a bullet in the hall of the house, but not obstructing it particularly, passed on. Between 10 and 11 o'clock the cry of an infant was heard in the hall, and on going out, a female infant, about 3 years old, was discovered in the basket, apparently dressed and wakened Hopkins being called in, took the child home to his wife, who kindly nurtured it for the night. This morning it was taken to the Almshouse and put out to nurse. Does not this show that he is innocent?

ASSISTANT CORONER'S OFFICE.

TUESDAY, Dec. 14.

STEALING BUTTER.—A man named Henry Brown was arrested on Monday night by Mr. E. N. Farnsworth, with a knife of butter in his possession weighing 19 pounds, and worth $15, which he had stolen from the store of James E. Koster, No. 225 Greenwich-street, and for which he was sent to prison to answer for.

A YOUNG STRANGER.—On Monday night a lady of the family of D. Verily, No. 13 Bowery, about 8 o'clock, shot a bullet in the hall of the house, but not obstructing it particularly, passed on. Between 10 and 11 o'clock the cry of an infant was heard in the hall, and on going out, a female infant, about 3 years old, was discovered in the basket, apparently dressed and wakened Hopkins being called in, took the child home to his wife, who kindly nurtured it for the night. This morning it was taken to the Almshouse and put out to nurse. Does not this show that he is innocent?

ASSISTANT CORONER'S OFFICE.

TUESDAY, Dec. 14.

STEALING BUTTER.—A man named Henry Brown was arrested on Monday night by Mr. E. N. Farnsworth, with a knife of butter in his possession weighing 19 pounds, and worth $15, which he had stolen from the store of James E. Koster, No. 225 Greenwich-street, and for which he was sent to prison to answer for.

A YOUNG STRANGER.—On Monday night a lady of the family of D. Verily, No. 13 Bowery, about 8 o'clock, shot a bullet in the hall of the house, but not obstructing it particularly, passed on. Between 10 and 11 o'clock the cry of an infant was heard in the hall, and on going out, a female infant, about 3 years old, was discovered in the basket, apparently dressed and wakened Hopkins being called in, took the child home to his wife, who kindly nurtured it for the night. This morning it was taken to the Almshouse and put out to nurse. Does not this show that he is innocent?

ASSISTANT CORONER'S OFFICE.

TUESDAY, Dec. 14.

STEALING BUTTER.—A man named Henry Brown was arrested on Monday night by Mr. E. N. Farnsworth, with a knife of butter in his possession weighing 19 pounds, and worth $15, which he had stolen from the store of James E. Koster, No. 225 Greenwich-street, and for which he was sent to prison to answer for.

A YOUNG STRANGER.—On Monday night a lady of the family of D. Verily, No. 13 Bowery, about 8 o'clock, shot a bullet in the hall of the house, but not obstructing it particularly, passed on. Between 10 and 11 o'clock the cry of an infant was heard in the hall, and on going out, a female infant, about 3 years old, was discovered in the basket, apparently dressed and wakened Hopkins being called in, took the child home to his wife, who kindly nurtured it for the night. This morning it was taken to the Almshouse and put out to nurse. Does not this show that he is innocent?

ASSISTANT CORONER'S OFFICE.

TUESDAY, Dec. 14.

STEALING BUTTER.—A man named Henry Brown was arrested on Monday night by Mr. E. N. Farnsworth, with a knife of butter in his possession weighing 19 pounds, and worth $15, which he had stolen from the store of James E. Koster, No. 225 Greenwich-street, and for which he was sent to prison to answer for